Learn about the critical benefits that hundreds of ABLE eligible West Virginians and their families are receiving by saving with WVABLE.

WVABLE is helping West Virginians with a disability achieve greater independence and financial security through the power of STABLE accounts. WVABLE provides eligible individuals the ability to save and invest without losing needs-based benefits, and offers tax-free savings to pay for disability-related expenses,

Join representatives from the WVABLE savings programs to learn the following:

- Who is eligible and the new eligibility criteria beginning Jan. 1, 2026
- Benefits and advantages of saving with WVABLE through a STABLE Account
- How to enroll and how the accounts work
- How to make withdrawals to pay for Qualified Disability Expenses
- How ABLE Accounts incentivize employment for PwD
- Important updates and program enhancements for 2024
- Time for Q&A will be included

Webinar presented by Roxanne Clay, WVABLE Director

If a scheduling conflict exists and WVABLE is unable to conduct a noon webinar on the third Wednesday of each month, please check the events page for alternate dates that have been added to the schedule.*
